

○ MJSP Inaugural lectures

Reconstruction in Tohoku as experimental ground for pioneers? Current projects, challenges and perspectives

January-February 2015, Tuesdays 4:30-6pm, OIA (except the last lecture)

20

January 2015

Work Style 2.0 after 3.11 /
3.11 以後に生まれた働き方 2.0

Iida Akio / Producer, Art buyer,
DENTSU razorfish

Fukushima and Furusato: Rural Community after Nuclear Disaster

Dr. Tom Gill / Meiji Gakuin University

27

January 2015

Ishinomaki laboratory:
Fun rather than common sense /
石巻工房：常識に囚われず、楽しむ

Chiba Takahiro / COO
Ishinomaki Laboratory

Ishinomaki laboratory:
A "unique" phoenix venture born in the disaster area

Matsuzaki Ben / President
Herman Miller Japan

3

February 2015

Service Learning in Tohoku: Oral Narratives of 3.11

Dr. David Slater / Sophia University

Fukushima Mothers: Fear, Evacuation and Mobilization

Haruka Danzuka, Tokyo University

Overcoming obstacles in the aftermath:
the IDRO's missions and challenges

Robert Mangold, Founder of International
Disaster Relief Organization Kyoto

5

February 2015,
3pm

Location:
Hokkaido University
Joho Kyoikukan 3F

Australia and Japan – relationships for the future:
Tohoku, a case study

H.E. Mr. Bruce Miller, Australian Ambassador to Japan

All lectures will be in English or interpreted from Japanese and will be followed by Q&A.
Location: Office of International Affairs, 2F, Lecture Room L1 (209)

All lectures are free to attend, but prior registration with your name by e-mailing mjsp\_event@oia.hokudai.ac.jp is much appreciated.

Questions to: mjsp\_event@oia.hokudai.ac.jp Organization/coordination: Susanne Klien, MJSP